Introduction:

The National Institutional Ranking Framework is an initiative approved by the MHRD and launched 29th September 2015 in order to rank the higher educational institutes and to promote competitive excellence in the higher educational institutions based on parameters like Teaching, Learning and Resources, Research and Professional Practices, Graduation Outcomes, Outreach and Inclusivity, and Perception.

Right from the launching of NIRF initiative, the college participates in two categories of ranking- Overall and College. The entire process of participation and quality enrichment is keenly monitored by Internal Quality Assurance Cell of the college.

Objectives:

- To participate in the ranking process at national level.
- To understand the weakness in various domains of the college.
- To adopt measures to overcome the weakness
- To improve the quality in the domains of various parameters
- To excel as a higher educational institute as a whole.
