A Brief Report on the Special Mentoring Program for Physically Challenged Students

IQAC of Deogiri College, Aurangabad implemented special mentoring program during 2020-2021. It was an additional help offered to the physically challenged students besides the regular mentoring program. It was undertaken looking at prevailing Covid-19 pandemic conditions and hardships experienced by common students in general and challenges faced by the physically challenged students in particular. Total 23 divyangjan were given help by their mentors.

Teachers were allocated certain mentees to look after their issues, problems and challenges and offer them every possible support online and offline.

After running the program successfully for the year, it was found that the students were very happy to receive help from their mentors. The common nature of their enquiry and help was as follow:

1. Enquiry
2. Co-curricular & Extracurricular Activities
3. Personal and College Issues
4. Exam and course related issues and queries

Following are the areas in which most of the queries were raised by the students.

1. Admission related queries
2. Syllabus and recommended reading material related queries.
3. Exam and internal tests related queries
4. Online class related queries
5. Fees related issues.

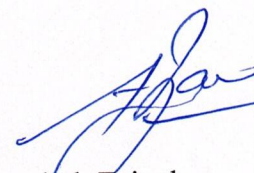

Outcome Analysis:

The students were offered the help to resolve their problems by the mentors. The issues were related to academic and extra-curricular activities. The students expressed their satisfaction for the help given to them by their mentors.

Outcome Analysis:

As a result of the mentoring program students were attended class lectures and participated in college activities. Students could get clear ideas about disabled reservation and some students searched vacancies and applied for government jobs. Students take initiative to apply for private jobs. Students get motivated and think positive about their future and higher education. Students shared their personal problems too during the phone call. They were given best advices as to concentrate on their studies more and tackle the issues systematically.
