Welcome Address by Principal	Dr. Shivaji Thore offered welcome address and he focused on how in current times, such programs are much needed and thanked RUSA and the office of Joint Director for taking such initiatives. He welcomed everyone and expressed his gratitude towards RUSA for offering the opportunity to conduct the program at Deogiri College, Aurangabad. He thanked Vice Chancellor of Dr. Babasaheb Ambedkar Marathwada University, Aurangabad for accepting the invitation to inaugurate the webinar

Name of the Inaugurator	Hon'ble Prof. Pramod Yeole
Opening Remarks by Joint Director	Dr. D. D. Gaikwad, hon'ble Joint Director of Aurangabad region offered opening remarks by stressing the need of strong initiatives from the colleges who haven't gone for accreditation by NAAC. He informed how office of higher education is regularly taking efforts to encourage colleges to go for accreditation and also expressed the readiness for every sort of help to the colleges who wish to go for NAAC accreditation.
Concept Note Delivery	Concept note was delivered by honourable Dr. P. N. Pabrekar, Sr. Consultant at RUSA. He systematically presented the idea and the theme behind organizing such event focusing the units like district. He expressed the need of how the colleges from urban and rural background need to be equipped with the latest information and changes that are taking place at broad level in the country and particularly the changing nature of the ways of accreditation and assessment by NAAC, Bangaluru. He was delighted to express his view how these events are proving quite helpful to the colleges in the state.
Address by the Inaugurator	Honourable Vice Chancellor Prof. Pramod Yeole very effectively presented his ideas on issues like quality education in the epidemic times like this i.e. Covid 19, need of teaching fraternity to be equipped with ICT as far as the teaching is concerned, necessity of college being very particular about creating culture of quality at the institutions and the need of all colleges to go for accreditation and assessment by NAAC. He being a man from the field of Pharmacy and pharmaceutical industry research, offered the scenario of current conditions and stressed the need of effective research in the area. He appreciated the efforts of RUSA bringing about such fruitful events across the districts of Maharashtra. He in his talk connected NIRF and NAAC assessment and offered stressed the importance of quality research publication. And appealed for not getting involved in any wrong practices in publication of research. He expressed his confidence about how such organization of events are going to make a long lasting impact on the quality of the institutions and the education they offer.
Resource Person 1-Preparation for NAAC	First talk on the topic Preparation for NAAC was offered by a much esteemed person i.e. Dr. M. R. Kurup from Mumbai. He superbly covered almost every aspect of NAAC accreditation and assessment process. He covered every part of the preparation right from the initial stage to the data submission and preparation for subsequent cycles. He talked in detail about the new format of accreditation by NAAC lately introduced. He guided about the data and documentation to be done regarding it. He talked about SSR components and offered his detailed discourse on each criterion from the framework. He informed about every stage while going for NAAC assessment and that included preparations for IIQA to SSR submission and following the timeline for the same. The details that he provided were aimed at solving the common problems faced by the colleges in this region. His deliberations on data verification and validation were spot on. He also talked about how to prepare for peer team visit and every care to be taken regarding it.

Resource Person 2- Documentation for NAAC	After the wonderful session by Dr. M. R. Kurup, another highly informative session was conducted by Dr. Bhalchandra Bhole who very effectively talked on documentation for NAAC. He not only talked about how documentation is to be done for the SSR but also offered an effective visual presentation regarding creating a system in colleges in preservation of data in general. His solutions to the common problems faced by the colleges were very effective and they were highly appreciated by the participants. He talked about data evidence types and requirement of data to be prepared for uploading. He explained how DVV and data presentation work. He covered both areas i.e. quantitative and qualitative parameters. He very systematically told how to observed and act accordingly by following the levels of documentation. He informed systematic ways to create and prepare the reports and how there are several problems faced by the institutions and how to avoid them. He talked about SoPs for data validation and all cares to be taking while doing so. He stressed the need of developing methods to preserve and present data.
Resource Person 3 - Role of IQAC for NAAC	The third and the final talk on Role of IQAC for NAAC was presented by Dr. Vijay Joshi, the chief consultant at RUSA. His was one of the most impressive talks. He at the outset insisted on establishing IQAC that truly is an agent of bringing quality changes. IQAC for him should imbibe within itself and in the institution the culture of quality which is an ever growing process. He talked about how quality circle works and Japanese system of KIAZEN regarding quality management and enhancement. He also talked about Six Sigma. He stated the ways in which IQAC can very effectively function. Then he talked from the composition of IQAC to the priorities an IQAC should fix and work accordingly. He expects IQAC should function in such a way that should influence the quality of experiences. In this process he believes how IQAC should be the agency to adopt the change. He expects it should be done in every way of administrative, teaching, evaluation, mentoring and other ways. It should also be a contributing factor in designing effective policies and setting up bench marks. He insisted on using different platforms to reach out students for learning experiences beyond the classroom experiences of the learners. He also informed to IQACs to be very particular about feedback and audits.
Question/Answer Session	After the talk of Dr. Vijay Joshi sir, few questions were taken from the audience for discussion. The questions were answered by Dr. Bhole sir, Dr. P. N. Pabrekar sir and also by Dr. Vijay Joshi sir.
Vote of Thanks	Dr. Vishnu Patil coordinator of IQAC of Deogiri College Aurangabad expressed gratitude towards everyone who actively participated in the workshop.

Would you like RUSA to conduct such programs in future?	Yes
Which other topics you would suggest for future programmes?	AQAR

As a Lead Institute and Organizer for RUSA organized NAAC Awareness Program, how will you initiate for attaining maximum "NAAC assessed and accredited status of colleges in your district". Please specify.

We believe we can do it on two levels i.e. we need to organize such programs that would offer the colleges and the faculty members the suitable and detailed information and create awareness among them for the process of accreditation and assessment.

And on the other hand, the UGC scheme like PARAMARSH is a great help to motivate practically the colleges to go for NAAC accreditation and assessment.
